

sing up

Help kids find their voice

National Male Singing Leaders Event

A landmark event to help us to shape the development of male singing leaders nationally

A challenging and stimulating free two day national event which will focus on the subject of male singing leaders. Over the days there will be workshops, presentations, discussions and performances, all harnessing the knowledge and expertise of delegates and nationally acclaimed practitioners and experts. Guest speakers will focus on:

- ♪ A key note speech by David Lawrence – Associate Conductor of the City of Birmingham Symphony Chorus and Choir Leader for the City of Birmingham Young Voices
- ♪ Workshops and performances by renowned singer and composer Cleveland Watkiss
- ♪ Developing your own vocal confidence as a male singing leader
- ♪ Male leadership and the changing voice (Professor Martin Ashley)
- ♪ Ways of supporting and developing male singing leaders regionally and nationally
- ♪ Using singing across the curriculum
- ♪ Contemporary voice work with boys who is this event for?

Male teachers, singing leaders or potential singing leaders; anyone that leads, or has an interest in leading singing with children.

Booking details

Where: Truro Methodist Church and Library, Cornwall, TR1 1EP

When: Tuesday 23rd February 2010, 1.30pm - 6.30 pm and Wednesday 24th February 9.30am - 4.00pm

To find out more or to book your place email conference@singup.org or telephone Sing Up Administrator Lindsay Bell on 0191 443 4695.

