

With Martin Seymour

Saturday September 17th, 10am – 5pm

The Cooper Hall, The Hall School, 23 Crossfield Road, NW3 4NU

Taken our Initial course and wondering if the Intermediate course might be for you? Been conducting a while and want to improve your technique? Or simply want the chance to work with a choir on exploring gesture and rehearsal? Then join Martin Seymour for a day of practical development and more.

The day is broadly based on the following areas:

- Posture, kinaesthetics and how to shape sound
- Preparing a score
- How to approach and prepare for successful rehearsals
- Understanding vocal skills and getting the best from your choir
- Continuing to develop your own gesture vocabulary and communication skills

Participant Fee: £90 abcd members, £100 non-members

Observer Fee: £35 abcd members, £40 non-members

Martin Seymour

Martin is currently Director of Music at All Saints' Marlow which continues the tradition of boy and men choristers alongside a separate girls' choir, adult choir and an occasional semi-professional chamber choir. He has also tutored for the RSCM and conducts an international choir in France during August. Other engagements has seen him travel as far as South Africa to spend time at the Drakensburg Boys' Choir School.

He regularly tutors on abcd conducting courses and is an abcd national council member.

The Hall School is close to Swiss Cottage Tube Station

The Association of British Choral Directors (abcd) is the only UK organisation which is devoted entirely to supporting those leading choral music, both amateur and professional. It is committed to promoting, improving and maintaining opportunities for the development of all those leading singing of any kind, whether in the classroom or in the community. It runs an extensive programme of national and regional courses, workshops seminars and an annual convention, using its network of the best choral leadership trainers in the country. www.abcd.org.uk
