ABOUT abcd

The Association of British Choral Directors (abcd) is the only UK organisation which is devoted entirely to supporting those leading choral music, both amateur and professional. We are committed to promoting, improving and maintaining opportunities for the professional development of all those leading singing of any kind, whether in the classroom or in the community. Our 800+ members represent nearly 2,000 choral groups and include teachers, composers, singers and students, leading singing of all kinds.

ABOUT THE DAY

- Enjoy a day of singing with someone who needs no introduction. The day will provide an opportunity to meet and work with John on a variety of his music, both well loved and newer works, and will include a few surprises.
- Music will be provided for the day at no extra cost but must be returned or paid for at the end of the day.
- Our accompanist will be Ian Tate. For over thirty years in the north-west he has worked as an accompanist, lecturer and teacher to diploma and degree level. He has accompanied many recitals and choral workshops and now, as well as teaching piano, is the regular accompanist for the Lancaster Singers and the Maia Singers, Stockport.

PRESENTER

John Rutter was born in London in 1945 and studied music at Clare College, Cambridge. His compositions embrace choral, orchestral, and instrumental music, and he has co-edited various choral anthologies including four Carols for Choirs volumes with Sir David Willcocks and the Oxford Choral Classics series. From 1975-9 he was Director of Music at Clare College, and in 1981 formed his own choir, the Cambridge Singers, a professional chamber choir primarily dedicated to recording.

He now divides his time between composition and conducting, and has guest-conducted or lectured at many concert halls, universities, churches, music festivals, and conferences in Europe, Scandinavia, and North America. He is an honorary Fellow of Westminster Choir College, Princeton, a Fellow of the Guild of Church Musicians, and in 1996 was awarded a Lambeth Doctorate of Music. In 2002 his setting of Psalm 150, commissioned for the Queen's Golden Jubilee, was performed at the Service of Thanksgiving in St Paul's Cathedral, London.

Rutter's choral works, including his Requiem and Gloria, are frequently performed around the world. In 2003 Mass of the Children, a major work for adult and children's choir, soloists, and orchestra, was premièred in New York's Carnegie Hall conducted by the composer.

John Rutter's music has been widely recorded and is available on many record labels including Universal, Naxos, and Hyperion. The Cambridge Singers have recorded many of John Rutter's works on the Collegium Records label. John was awarded a CBE in 2007 for services to music.
