SING JUBILEE

Saturday 19th May 2012

10:00 – 16:00

16.15 – 17.00 free concert
Durham Johnston School
DH1 4SU

Ample free parking. Accessible site.

A day-long choral workshop for singers to explore wonderful music to celebrate the Royal Jubilee with David Lawrence, a leading professional choral director.

Conductors are most welcome to sing; there will be a directing strand woven into the day.

A joint event organised by the Association of British Choral Directors and Making Music.

INFORMATION

Learn to sing a fascinating programme of choral music specially selected to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, in pleasant new surroundings.

David Lawrence will inspire you with entertaining rehearsal techniques and dazzling musicianship.

Choral conductors are warmly invited to come and sing, as David will take a short question session for them during the day and demonstrate best practice.

A free final performance for friends and relatives will crown this special event.

We anticipate a choir of 80.

All singers are welcome!

BIOGRAPHY

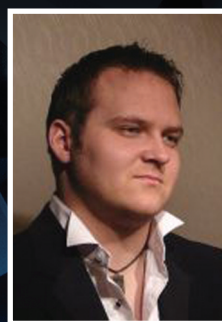

DAVID LAWRENCE

is one of the UK's most versatile conductors. Shortlisted for a Gramophone Award, he holds the Guinness World Record for conducting the UK's largest choir – 6,846 singers.

He has worked worldwide with top ensembles including symphony choruses and national youth choirs. His positive and engaging manner makes him a popular guest conductor (London Philharmonic Choir, Halle Choir), international Adjudicator and a highly respected trainer of choral conductors. He is Associate Conductor of the CBSO Chorus and Principal Conductor of Young Voices, involving concerts of more than 8,000 singers. He conducts "Songs of Praise" and directed "The People's Chorus" for BBC 4.

In 2011 David conducted Beethoven's 9th Symphony with the Barrier Reef Orchestra during a six week visit to Queensland.

NICHOLAS NOWICKI

accompanist studied at York University and the RNCM where he was awarded the Clifton Helliwell Memorial Prize for piano.

He is in demand as a recitalist and last year performed with Bryn Terfel at Newcastle City Hall. As a conductor he has directed the Chimera Ensemble and is conductor of Tees Valley Youth Orchestra.

He currently teaches piano at Newcastle Royal Grammar School.
