

North West Honour Choir 2013

Bob Chilcott has been involved in choral music for most of his life, having been a chorister and Choral Scholar at King's College, Cambridge, and a member of the vocal ensemble The King's Singers for twelve years. Since 1997 he has been a full-time conductor and composer, and has over 150 works published by OUP.

His work has been embraced by many choral organizations and festivals worldwide including ABCD, the American Choral Directors Association, Europa Cantat, Festival 500 in Newfoundland, the Crescent City Choral Festival in New Orleans, and the Song Festival in Tallinn, Estonia. He conducts regularly in Japan, and in the USA, and makes frequent return visits to Canada, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, and other European countries.

For seven years, from 1997 to 2003, Bob Chilcott conducted the choir of the Royal College of Music in London, and in 2002 he was appointed Principal Guest Conductor of the BBC Singers. He has also conducted many distinguished choirs worldwide including the RIAS Kammerchor in Berlin, the World Youth Choir, Jauna Musika in Lithuania, Orphei Drangar in Sweden, the Taipei Chamber Singers, the Tower New Zealand Youth Choir, and the Vancouver Chamber Choir.

In 2012 the new upper-voice jazz works, Nidaros Mass and Jazz Songs of Innocence were published by OUP, and in 2013 he will complete a new setting of the Passion, from St John's Gospel, for Wells Cathedral Choir, and Five Days that Changed the World for the Worcester International Festival for Young Singers where he will conduct the SATB youth choir in July.

CDs featuring his music will be released by the Wroclaw Philharmonic Choir and the current BBC Choir of the Year, the Wellensian Consort.

We have arranged three workshops to be led by Bob Chilcott as training days for the choir. The first two on Saturday February 9th and Sunday April 28th will be held at Longsands Community Primary School, Fulwood, Preston with easy access from the M6 Junction 31A.

The third workshop and concert on June 8th will be at Fulwood Methodist Church PR2 8EA

The concert at 7.30 pm is to be shared with the Preston Cecilian Choral Society a mixed voice adult choir. It will be open to the public. The children will perform in each half of the concert.

Singers:

If you have been a member of the Honour Choir before OR are in Year 5, 6, 7 or 8 from September, 2012, you can apply.

All you need is to love to sing. You should be able to sing in tune and be fairly good at holding your part when the music divides into several parts. You may or may not already be in a choir but you must be keen to try and willing to spend time learning the music. You will need to have the recommendation of a teacher either from school or your private music teacher. Good manners will be expected so that we can all enjoy the music.

Please be sure to ask a parent or teacher to help you fill in the application form.

Honour Choir applicants will be required to pay a participation fee of £36.00, payable to ABCD. This will go towards workshop costs and is not refundable.

Places are limited so please apply promptly and no later than the end of December 2012

Do you love to sing?
